

California Wildlife

Sea Otters have the thickest fur out of any mammal in North America. Their babies' fur is so thick they float on the water, and their parents wrap them up in kelp to keep them safe while they hunt!

Draw your own Sea Otter swimming under the kelp!