

California Wildlife

Turkey vultures are large black birds with red heads that feed only on animals that have died.

Black-tailed deer are brown with black on their tails. Fawns, baby deer, have white spots for camouflage. The male deer grow antlers every year.