

Ocean Adventures

Gray whales are usually covered in barnacles and whale lice. They migrate over a long distance in the ocean every year.

Harbor seals are brown and gray and are sometimes covered in spots. They are fast swimmers that feed on fish.

The Leopard Shark can grow to be 6 feet long. Color me gray with black spots.